Body located in Baytown Township following missing person report

BAYTOWN TOWNSHIP – The Washington County Sheriff’s Office is investigating after a body matching the description of a missing Stillwater man was located near the 5400 block of Osgood Avenue North in Baytown Township Sunday evening.

George Musser, 20, was reported missing after he was last seen leaving a downtown Stillwater bar around 2:10 a.m. Saturday morning. Authorities and volunteers conducted an intensive search, and a body matching the description of Musser was located by authorities just after 7 p.m. this evening.

The formal identification of the deceased, along with the cause and manner of death, will be determined by the Ramsey County Medical Examiner’s Office. Additional information is not available to be released at this time due to the ongoing nature of the investigation.
