

Person-Centered Progress: Washington County's Creativity in Practice

Merhaba Γειάσας
Halo Привіт Hallå
Përshëndetje
Bonjour Helló Diaduit
Прывітанне
Habari Sveiki
Bok
Ciao Holo
Halo
Helo
Здравей
नमस्ते
Olá Tere Hej Halló
Ahoj Alo
Sveicināti
שלום
Здраво 안녕하세요
Xinchào
Привет
Halo
Hello
こんにちは

Welcome!
So glad you
are here

Agenda

- Opening Activity
- The Ideal
- The Idea: Peer Learning Circles
- Our Process
- Where we are today

Opening Questions

- Please connect to the internet

Goals and Outcomes

- Washington County's version of Person Centered Thinking 201
- Learn about Peer Learning Circles (PLCs)
- Importance of relationship building
- Internal culture shift is needed
- Share resources and tools
- Bring awareness of how we all need to be more person centered

Break into groups of 3

Come Back Together

The Ideal

- How we got here
- Strategies
- How to get people on board
  - Dedicated time (mandatory)
- The Why - Raising the importance

The Ideal, cont.

- Culture change
- Person centered with co-workers
- Leadership buy-in

The Idea: Peer Learning Circles

- What are PLCs?
- Purpose of a PLC

Circles Over Time

How To Host A Circle

- Ground rules
- Meetings are structured
- Discussions in the circles are confidential, supportive, focused on learning and action
- Build trust
- Ensure all voices are heard = equality
- Everyone has something to contribute and something they can learn

How To, cont.

- Select a learning topic
- Different viewpoints are shared
- Encourages growth, reflection, action
- Expands knowledge
- Encourages creativity
- Applies knowledge to real-world challenges

Sculpture by Matthieu Robert-Ortis – Paris, France

How To, cont.

- Opens a forum for feedback from peers
- Shares new processes and approaches
- Builds a connection amongst co-workers
- Circle participants aren't taking time away from work, but instead working on work

Hosting and Holding Space

- Not always solving problems
- Soft skills
- Bravery
- Become comfortable being uncomfortable
- Continuing conversations
- Look at new and creative ways to solve problems, issues, connect with people, listen to hear, expand the conversation, share resources

Check-in Question

- What is one easy way to start this in your workplace?

Process

- Training
- Things are changing

Process, cont.

- Cohort model
- Being uncomfortable
- Connections

Check-in Question

- How comfortable are you with taking a risk in your personal life? At work?
- Is there a difference? Why?

Where we are today

- Unexpected Outcomes
- Role of Leadership
- Relationship building
- More internal networking
- Ongoing!

PLC Data and Feedback (2018)

Number of People attending PLCs in 2018

- 78% attended 5 or more
  - 43% attended 5
  - 35% attended 5+
- Those that had less than 5:
  - Hired/left/on leave during 2018
  - Contracted staff
- 7.4% (5 staff) did not meet the minimum

Tools and Resources

- Our Words Matter
- Best Practices Documents
- PLC “How To Guide”
- STAR Services videos
- Find more info at: www.co.washington.mn.us/PC

Questions?

